

Self-Determination Program

Local Advisory Committee Meeting

Monday, January 8, 2017

6:30-8:30 PM

Regional Center of Orange County

1525 N. Tustin Ave

Santa Ana, California 92705

What is Self-Determination?

Self-Determination is a way for people to have control over their own lives and make decisions for themselves.

What is the Self-Determination Program?

The Self-Determination Program provides people with the freedom to choose the supports they want in their lives, through a Person Centered Plan and an individualized budget.

Join us!

The Advisory Committee Meeting is a public meeting where information regarding Self-Determination is shared. Come learn more about the Self-Determination Program, updates on future trainings, and how to be a part of the program.

*Please be aware that this is NOT the pre-enrollment session.
