

FREE Person-Centered Thinking Conference

A fun and informative event for people served by RCOC, family members, and service providers.

Explore how person-centered practices can help you discover possibilities and find ways to make them happen.

This day is for you!

Learn to use person-centered skills with all ages!

CHOOSE ONE DAY:

FREE

Friday 6

November

9:30 am – 4:00 pm

or

Saturday 7

November

9:30 am – 4:00 pm

Register now for this FREE Person-Centered Thinking Conference – Space limited.

Interpretation available upon request.

Location: Tustin Community Center at the Market Place

CLICK HERE

Lunch

Get creative

Meet new people

Photo booth

During our time together you will explore:

Be inspired at opening session with Wayed Kabir, Peer Advocate, RCOC

One-Page Descriptions

Share what's important to you and how people can best support you.

Communication Charts

Help others understand how you communicate.

Community Mapping

Discover people, places, and opportunities that connect you to your community.

Decision-Making Profiles & Agreements

Get clear about how you make choices and how others can support your decisions.

Gallery Walk

Stop by. Look around. Ask questions. Talk with people. Discover something new.

Creation Station

Enjoy some creative time while connecting with others, see where your creativity takes you.

Register now, space is limited.

Childcare will not be provided for this event. Please contact your Service Coordinator if you are parent(s) and/or primary caregiver(s) of RCOC Persons Served and need additional support to attend.

Questions? Contact:

Julie@helensandersonassociates.com

CLICK HERE

This event was made possible with DDS Home and Community-Based Services Fund. Interpretation and translation support was funded by the DDS Language Access and Cultural Competence Fund.

